A First-Time Glimpse Into

The Secret Council
Of the Inner Circle

The Secret Council Of The Inner Circle

This will be the first time you have ever heard about this. You may have suspected it, but you would never have known about it. What I am about to reveal to you has NEVER been talked about publicly - until now!

Being granted special permission, I have decided to shine a light on something that has been shrouded in thousands of years of secrecy. I am not permitted to reveal any highly-guarded, ancient secrets, but I have been granted permission to let people know about something that has existed for thousands of years - The Secret Council Of The Inner Circle. I am doing this at the risk of making some of my peers a bit nervous, but since we now live in the Age Of Enlightenment, I feel it is time to widen this circle a little, and to possibly discover a select, but a chosen few.

I have consulted with the all of the Inner Council members, and I have received spoken, verbal permission to talk about this, as long as the information I share is general, and as long as no secret knowledge is revealed to outsiders.

Out of respect for me, I ask that you never ask me to reveal this ancient knowledge to you or anyone else, because I am not permitted discuss this in any more detail than I am sharing in this book. If you would ever email me for the purpose of asking me to reveal the sacred information to you, you will get no response from me. Other than what I am permitted to reveal in this book, this subject is otherwise a closed door!

As you read this, I want you to be assured that this knowledge is being passed on to a chosen few, and be assured that this ancient knowledge will continue to be passed on, the same as it has been for centuries. This secret lineage of powerful, chosen Light Seekers and Psychics will continue to exist, until the end of time!

There are only around 88 psychics worldwide, who are part of what is called "The Inner Circle". The Inner Circle has existed for hundreds of years, and few psychics even know this exists! Only those psychics who have been chosen to be part of this ancient Inner Circle even know about it.

Currently in the United States, there are only two other psychics including myself, who are part of the Inner Circle, and most people have never heard their names before, because they do not offer readings. They use their psychic and healing gifts to help mankind in other helping vocations.

The Inner Circle goes all the way back to the times of the Ancient Mystery Schools of Egypt, Greece, and Rome. Pythagorus was a member of one of the ancient mystery schools.

The Inner Circle Society was founded by a man named Ram, who lived in Egypt during the reign of Cleopatra, around 30 BC.

Ram was a highly spiritual man, who had many gifts, including the ability to levitate, x-ray vision, and the power to heal someone instantly, just by looking at them. These were just a few of his highly develop powers!

Ram was just an ordinary man, who was deeply spiritual, and very devoted to the Gods of that time. One day, when Ram was meditating by the river Nile, he was visited by a “being from the sky”. This “tall, bluish being had a friendly smile, and light rays of beautiful colors surrounding him” appeared out of thin air. At first, Ram believed him to be a God, but this Being informed Ram he was not a God, but simply a messenger for the Gods.

He told told Ram that he was chosen to be the founder of an advanced Soul Council that was to be formed on the earth, and that he would like to know if Ram would accept this responsibility.

Ram said to the light being “But I am just an ordinary man, I am not a God, nor do I have any special powers like a God, so why me?”

The tall bluish Being then asked him with a warm, but serious look, “Ram, if you had the powers of a God, would you devote your life to helping others?”

Ram told the Being that his entire life he has devoted his life to the Gods, and would serve them in any way they would require of him.

The light being then placed his hands on Ram, and a “beautiful violet lightning bolt shot through his palms”, causing Ram to fall to the ground.

Ram described this experience as a “moment of the purest bliss that words cannot express”, and when he went to get up off the ground, he started to rise instead!

The bluish being told Ram that the greatest powers known to man has now been awakened within him. The light being went on to explain to Ram that he did not “give” Ram these powers, but only awakened within him what every Earth Being already possesses inside.

This Being then told Ram that he would instruct him in “how to heal with a glance”, and “fly like the birds in the sky.” He was also told that his eyes “would now be able to see everything as clearly as looking through a piece of glass”, and this is what is known today as x-ray vision.

Many of the earliest medical discoveries known to man, were discovered by the assistance of The Inner Circle Society members.

The elder council members tell us that the story of Ali Baba and his magic carpet rides, actually came about as a result of the stories passed on over the centuries, about Ram and his ability to fly.

The wheel in the sky that is mentioned in the bible, along with the four headed beasts that are mentioned there too, are also eye witness accounts of the powers of Ram and his Inner Circle Society members.

The information taught in these schools was never written down, because the ancients knew that if this information landed in the wrong hands, that it could be used for evil purposes! So this information has only been passed down through the oral tradition. In other words, it is passed from Masters to their students, and it is only taught by speaking - never writing!

Any writing needed, is written on a flat surface of sand or dirt, where it can easily be erased once it has been written down. The only things usually written in sand or dirt, are sacred symbols that need to be learned, or sometimes, secret words or phrases that are to be memorized. Other than that, NOTHING is ever written down.

When I was a young child, around 12 years old, I was approached by a very old man, who was a highly developed Psychic Medium. Mother had met him at a famous Spiritualist Camp she used to take me to when I was growing up.

This gentleman, who will remain unnamed, one day asked my mother if he could work with me to help me develop my psychic ability. He never told my mother anything other than that. My mother was honored, and totally supportive of this.

This gentleman used to drive to our home, from over two hours away, at least 3 times a week. On weekends, my mother would drive me to see him. He would come over, and take me to our basement, where he showed me things that if I didn't witness them with my own eyes, I would never have believed were possible.

This gentleman had a home on the grounds of this camp, so when I went to his home on the weekends, my mother would go to the church services, and spend time learning herself. Me and him would spend hours alone, where he taught me and trained me in many, many things.

He used to tell me that I had been chosen by the council, and I was going to be trained and taught many things that the outside world didn't know existed! He told me that even most psychics didn't know these things, because one had to be chosen by the council in order to be taught them.

He had a sand box type surface in a spare room of his home, and this is where he would draw the things I needed to memorize and know. Then afterwards, he would sweep the images back to a flat surface of sand.

He told me that one day, I would also find a chosen few, of which I would also pass on this knowledge to.

He told me that I must learn these ancient secrets until they become second nature to me, so as to preserve this ancient lineage of psychic knowledge. He told me that one day, I was to help the world with one of my psychic abilities - the ability to see into the future with the help of Spirit Guides and Guardian Angels,

I was also never to speak of my training to anyone, not even my mother! I was also never to "show off" with my gifts. He told me that many of my gifts would be viewed as "magic tricks" because most people could never comprehend that things that appear to others as "impossible", were actually real.

He told me that the psychics he personally knew, didn't even know about this Inner Circle, or the Secret Council, or even this side of his life!

People knew he was a highly gifted psychic, but they never saw all of the things I got to see him do!

He told me that if other people, even other psychics, were ever told about the things he taught me, they would never believe it anyway. He said to people outside of the Inner Circle, it would sound crazy, even impossible!

When I watched the Harry Potter movies, they made me remember all my years studying with him.

He taught me and trained me until the time of his passing into the spirit world, which occurred when I was in my early twenties.

I felt it is important that you understand that this exists. And I am here to tell you that there is not one famous psychic you have ever heard of out there today, that has ever been trained by a master, let alone even knows this Inner Circle exists, unless they happen to be reading what you are reading right now.

This is the first time this information has ever been talked about publicly, or written down. Welcome to your first initiation training, because today, you have become the first of a lucky few who have been chosen to be initiated into the Inner Circle, and help to keep its lineage alive!
